

Split in 3 teams with approximately equal number of participants.

Each team has the task to brainstorm for designing a mind map with at least 5 actions and practical activities meant to increase awareness on school bullying.

On the same mind map appropriate categories of persons/institutions which to implement the foreseen actions and activities has to be mentioned.

Working time is 10 minutes.

After designing the mind map each team will use the coffee break to informally present it to the others, to briefly explain reasons and describe features as arguments for having selected those institutions.

The lecturer will provide teams with A3 sheets, stickers, post-it and coloured markers.
